

Academic English: Speaking and Correspondence (GC101-13)

학기	2026년 1학기
담당교수	Andrew John Miller
이수구분	공통필수
학점	2.0
강의시간	금09:30-12:30(E7 - L28)
강의실
소속	기초학부

교과개요

The English language is a tool for thought and communication. With this in mind, the Academic English: Speaking and Correspondence course has been designed to provide meaningful and purposeful interactions where ideas and opinions are developed and expressed by actually using the target language. In particular, this course will focus on spoken communication and written correspondence, including group discussions, presentations, email, and paragraph writing.

교과목표

Language Objectives: By the end of this course, students will be able to learn and use languages and strategies for conversing with others effectively and appropriately; languages and strategies for presenting on a particular topic in front of an audience; linguistic fundamentals and etiquette for writing an email; and, languages and discursive features for writing a paragraph

수업방법

Based on an integrated approach to language skills and collaborative learning, the main activities include participating in group discussions, giving presentations, writing in groups, and peer teaching. Students are expected to use English only for all class activities.

학습윤리

Academic Conduct Policy Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated. Violations of these rules will result in a record of the violation being placed in your file. You may also receive a failing grade for the course. Confirmation of such incidents can also result in expulsion from the university. Academic Dishonesty includes:

- ◆ Unauthorized assistance: Using unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise (unless specifically authorized by your professor).
- ◆ Presenting material (through written, visual, electronic, or oral means) which has not been studied or learned, but rather was obtained through someone else's efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment, or project.
- ◆ Falsifying or misrepresenting your academic work.
- ◆ Plagiarism: In which another's work or ideas are used without indication of the source, thereby conveying the impression that such work is the student's own. (go to <http://www.plagiarism.org/> or <https://www.copykiller.co.kr/notice> to get more information on plagiarism and how to avoid it)
- ◆ Multiple Submissions: Submitting the same work for credit more than once without the express permission of the professor.
- ◆ Any student who knowingly helps another student violate these academic behavior standards is also in violation of the standards.

교과정책(방침)

Academic Conduct Policy Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated. Violations of these rules will result in a record of the violation being placed in your file. You may also receive a failing grade for the course. Confirmation of such incidents can also result in expulsion from the university. Academic Dishonesty includes:

- ◆ Unauthorized assistance: Using unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise (unless specifically authorized by your professor).
- ◆ Presenting material (through written, visual, electronic, or oral means) which has not been studied or learned, but rather was obtained through someone else's efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment, or project.
- ◆ Falsifying or misrepresenting your academic work.
- ◆ Plagiarism: In which another's work or ideas are used without indication of the source, thereby conveying the impression that such work is the student's own. (go to <http://www.plagiarism.org/> or <https://www.copykiller.co.kr/notice> to get more information on plagiarism and how to avoid it)
- ◆ Multiple Submissions: Submitting the same work for credit more than once without the express permission of the professor.
- ◆ Any student who knowingly helps another student violate these academic behavior standards is also in violation of the standards.

준비물 및 기타

There is no textbook. You will need a notebook or tablet-style computer, Google Drive for Slides, Docs, and Forms, and Google Chrome with active extensions such as Grammarly. Google Meet or Zoom may be used for any out-of-class meetings.