교과개요

The following outline looks somewhat ambitious and we probably will not be able to cover all the topics listed below. If we slip behind the schedule, then we will either skim over or just omit some of the topics.

교과목표

This course will be taught in English. This course is designed to teach the students the very basic stuffs of economics especially focusing on microeconomics such as (1) how consumers and firms make their economic decisions (i.e., demand and supply), (2) how the equilibrium prices are determined in the competitive market. Although the level of this course is an introductory level, the students should expect that some mathematical and statistical tools will be used in the class. However, economic intuition will be more emphasized during the course because having such economic intuition is much more important for understanding economics. The students are encouraged to raise their questions and to express their opinions on the subjects during the class time. However, the students are not allowed to talk with others about irrelevant subjects during the class time. In fact, all the discussions in the class will be conducted by me. And, the students who offend this rule will be penalized severely. The students are recommended to try the problem sets themselves first. But, sharing your own idea with other students is another good way of developing your knowledge on the topics. Students are also strongly encouraged to make use of my official office hours to discuss classwork. If you cannot make the office hours, we can make special arrangements.

수업방법

THE STUDENTS SHOULD MAKE GROUPS. THE MAXIMUM NUMBER OF STUDENTS IN EACH GROUP IS 5. THE PROBLEM SETS WILL BE AND SHOULD BE DONE ON A GROUP BASIS.
