교과개요

The Scientific Writing course is designed to help students understand the fundamentals of effective scientific and technical writing and write a mini research paper as the final project. To this end, the course consists of two phases: Lecture/Discussion and the Writing Project. In the first quarter of the semester, students will learn the basics of academic research paper writing such as ethics and plagiarism, paraphrasing, referencing, and style; they will also explore the structure of scientific writing and discursive features specific to scientific writing by surveying published research papers in the science and technology fields. Equipped with this basic understanding about writing a research paper, students will move on to learn how to compose each of the sections of a research paper centering on content, frequently used vocabulary, discourse-organizing words, and syntax patterns. As they learn the specifics of each section, students will have ample opportunities to practice writing through not only structured class activities but also actually drafting their own research paper section by section according to the class progress.

교과목표

The aim of this class is to help improve your scientific and technical writing skills. You should eventually be able to research, organize, and write technical and scientific material in a way that can be understood by your intended audiences. By the end of this course: Students will be able to - understand structure of scientific writing and its discursive features; - write effectively, concisely, and clearly for an academic paper; - write a short research paper of their interest; and - demonstrate their understanding about ethics in the academic world.

학습윤리

Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated. Violations of these rules will result in a record of the violation being placed in your file and you may also receive a failing grade for the course. Confirmation of such incidents can also result in expulsion from the University. Academic Dishonesty includes: - Unauthorized assistance: Using unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise unless specifically authorized by your professor. - Presenting material (through written, visual, electronic or oral means) which has not been studied or learned, but rather was obtained through someone else's efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment or project. - Falsifying or misrepresenting your academic work. - Plagiarism: Whereby another's work or ideas are used without any indication of the source, thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student's own. (go to <http://www.plagiarism.org/> ; <https://www.copykiller.co.kr/notice> ; <http://citationstyles.org/> ; or <http://endnote.com/downloads/styles> to get more information on plagiarism and how to avoid it) - Multiple Submissions: Submitting the same academic work for credit more than once without the express permission of the professor. - Any student who knowingly helps another violate academic behavior standards is also in violation of the standards.

교과정책(방침)

Attendance Policy: All classes are mandatory and must be attended. If you are unable to attend class, you need to advise your professor at least 24 hours prior to your intended absence. If you have a reasonable excuse for your absence you will be given an excused absence. An excused absence does not negatively affect your final grades, however repeated absence (excused or not) may result in a warning from your professor after which any further absences may lead to being awarded an unsatisfactory grade for the course. If you miss class due to ill-health, provide a medical certificate to your professor during the first class after your return. If you are absent without a reasonable excuse, you will be marked as absent from the session. If you are marked absent SIX or more times during the semester you will receive a grade of unsatisfactory for the course. Please arrive on time for all class meetings. THREE late arrivals will result in being marked as an unexcused absence. Arriving more than 15 minutes after the start of class will automatically be marked as an unexcused absence.
