교과개요

This course aims to introduce the causes, background, and historical development of South Korea's foreign policy decisions. In particular, it focuses on discussing and analyzing South Korea's security, trade, and unification policies, as well as its public diplomacy, in the post-Korean War era.

교과목표

This course has two primary objectives: first, to provide an overview of Korea's unique context of division and unification; and second, to help students develop a understanding of contemporary Korea in international relations.
